THE HON'BLE SRI JUSTICE J.CHELAMESWAR
AND
THE HON'BLE SRI JUSTICE D.APPA RAO

W.P.No. 9853 of 2006

JUDGMENT : (per JC,J)

Today when the matter is taken up, the learned counsel for the petitioner made a statement that a copy of the letter received by the police was placed before the father of the missing girl and the father, petitioner herein identified the hand-writing as that of his daughter.

On the other hand, learned Advocate General represented that in view of the fact that the police have received the letter from Bangalore, the respondents have already taken necessary steps to alert the police of Karnataka regarding the investigation of Cr.No. 163 of 2006.

In the circumstances, more particularly, having regard to the content of the letter which is already extracted by us in the earlier order dated 15-06-2006, we do not see any reason to proceed further with the writ petition and the same is closed with a direction to the respondents to file a final report before the appropriate court as and when the investigation comes to an end.
